

THE LATEST VARIATION of a GREAT GAME SYSTEM

- ★ Four games sharing a set of standard rules derived from Panzergruppe Guderian
- ★ Each game is complete with exclusive rules, 200 counters, and 17" x 22" map

Of all the theaters in the Second World War, none approaches the magnitude and ferocity of the campaigns in the Soviet Union. In southwest Russia, from the Pripet marshes to the Don, Army Group South battled across the Ukraine without respite for over three years.

KIEV

The Battle of Encirclement, 1941

The Soviet South West Front is caught between Axis armored pincers, yielding up 600,000 prisoners.

ROSTOV

The First Soviet Counter-Attack

Wave upon wave of Soviet infantry attacks thrust the Axis from Rostov, pushing them beyond the Mius River.

OPERATION STAR

The Soviet Winter Offensive, 1943

Ten Panzer and Panzergrenadier divisions fall on strung out Soviet columns, smashing them in a daring counterstroke.

KORSUN

The German Pocket on the Dniepr, 1944

The largest German pocket since Stalingrad, and the powerful counterattacks that broke the Soviet stranglehold — almost.

Army Group South borrows many features of Panzergruppe Guderian and tailors them to suit the needs of four very different situations. Disruption, mechanized and non-mechanized movement, step reduction, untried units, and headquarters units are all included. The quadrigame also includes a full-length historical article tracing the history of Army Group South and detailing each of the four battles simulated.
